

Our video game is where you come into the sweet shop with $350 and you have to buy the ingredients that will go with the sweet treat of your choice. And then you have to type the ingredients that you bought, and once you type them (like monkey climber) you get to go back to the sweet shops kitchen. And when you get there you get to make a sweat treat that you picked. This will help with children's typing skills. You will have fun. 😊😊😊
